Purpose of Counseling: (Leader states the reason for the counseling, e.g. Performance/Professional or Event-Driedled counseling, and includes the leader's facts and observations prior to the counseling.)

Performance / Professional Development

- Monthly: June

PART HE- SUMMARY OF COUNSELING

Complete this section during or immediately subsequent to counseling.

Key Points of Discussion:

PFC MANNING the following is in regards to your performance for the month of May as well as your expectations for the month of June:

- o As a member of a unit assigned to the 10th Mountain Division you are expected to know, live and enforce the standards of the 10th Mountain Division Blue Book. Ensure these standards are thoroughly known.
- o. You will conduct yourself with military bearing upholding the Army Customs and Courtesies and Army L.-D-R-S-H-I-P values in what you say, do, and don't do.
- . Your daily actions are indicative of your values, ensure your verbiage and your actions go hand and hand
- o. You will maintain yourself (physically and mentally), your equipment, your skills, and your personal affairs to ensure you are always ready to deploy and fulfill any mission. Maintain versatility through constant mission readiness.
- . The Standard is the Army Standard live to uphold it.
- o You will keep an open line of communication with your leadership at all those. You will know and use your Chain of Command appropriately. You will communicate with your poers in their absence so as to keep the entire team informed and fit to fight.
- o Your performance for the months of May:
- Your performance through the month of May has shown gains since your last counseling. You have maintained an open line of communication, continue this pattern to ensure the mission and individual disposition is enhanced.
- . While TDY at school there were some accusations and conflicts;
- > Ensure you are aware of your surroundings that perception in truth in the military. Remember to consistently conduct yourself in a military manner.
- This is the most important time for communication and integrity, continue these practices.
- > CONGRADULATIONS on your successful completion of your analyst training.
- b Your physical funess is still a weakness. You will be devised a work-out progrem to conduct as mission allows in the afternoon hours, it is your duty to be physically fit. This is a situation to be aware of and address prior to it becoming a impacting issue.
- o Your overall performance has led you to being recommended to compete at the August Soldier of the Mouth Board.
- Discipline is a must through the July training exercise and the high pre-deployment op-tempo. This is only going to increase your opportunities through giving you additional opportunities to exect.
- Sock study meterial through the designated regulations and manuals an well as www.smystudyguide.com
- b Users of tobacco products will not be allowed additional time beyond routing breaks to be away from their jobs for sobacco breaks. (AR 600-63 per 7 k) in keeping with this standard you will be required to ask your Team Leader for permission to take any smoke breaks during work hours. As the 35F Team we will always uphold a standard. If your Team Leader is not present you will alway by until your Team Leader 15 in contact with you. There will be NO exceptions to this rule.
